Report of the various workshops and seminars conducted during the academic year 2017-18

With an intention to promote the research culture among the teachers, a one-day- workshop was conducted on 20th October 2017, by Dr. Udaya Ravi S V , H O D of English. The topic was 'How to Write Research Paper and Publish in journals'. The morning session covered the basic methodology of writing, papers and the afternoon session introduced to various journals, including online, offline, meaning of peer reviewed journals etc. Fifty teachers attended the workshop and found it informative. The out come was encouraging as many tried to write research papers in their respective fields.

The Career Guidance and Employment Cell of our college conducted 'Success Mantra', a work-shop to impart the skill of getting recruited by employers easily. Mr. Raja Bharath, from Bharath Matrimonial conducted the workshop. The workshop covered the various aspects of employment right from the grassroots levels of sources of employment news, writing effective application forms, facing the interview, etc. 80 students from the final year BA, BCom and M Com participated in the workshop. The students found the workshop open new vistas of opportunities.

A One-day- workshop sponsored by the Syndicate Bank was conducted by the Commerce department on 'Recent changes in the Banking Practices and Cashless Translation' on 26th October 2017. Ms. P. Rekha from the Jnana Jyothi Financial centre, and Mr. Vivek , senior Councillor, conducted the work-shop. Various ways of transacting money in the virtual form were introduced. The advantages and the threats of using them and how to get over the threats were all covered thread-bare during the course. The work-shop was addressed to the M.Com and B.Com Students of our college, about 70 students who found this very informative and useful.

The aspiration of every Commerce student is to be a Chartered accountant. It is a very challenging and remunerative profession. The Department of Commerce conducted a one-day workshop on 'How to Prepare for and face CA course?' on 19th January 2018. Mr. Bharath Kumar, a practicing CA, and an alumnus of our college imparted useful information on the procedure to acquire the qualification of CA. The money incurred as fee, the syllabus, the hours of work to be invested every day, and the opportunities and the returns it fetches were discussed in a day long workshop. 65 students attended the programme and were happy to get useful inputs.
